[REDACTED]

THREAT AGAINST PRESIDENT REAGAN
AND CONGRESSMAN SIDNEY R. YATES
OF ILLINOIS - EXTORTION

On January 21, 1982, the Washington Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) was advised by [REDACTED] United States Capital Police, Washington, D.C. that Congressman Yates' Office received a threatening letter on January 20, 1982. [REDACTED] provided the FBI with a copy of the letter and envelope. A copy of the letter and envelope was then forwarded to the Chicago Division of the FBI by telecopies. On January 21, 1982, the Chicago Division of the FBI then opened an investigation under the extortion statute, Title 18, United States Code, Section 876 (3), in that a message containing a threat to kidnap or injure any person was delivered or caused to be delivered by the postal service. Subsequent investigation by Chicago at Chicago revealed the following facts:

b7C

Two subjects were developed in the above investigation. Subject number one is [REDACTED] juvenile; subject number two is [REDACTED] juvenile. Both subjects were interviewed by Special Agents (SAs) of the FBI in the presence of their parents, where both admitted their culpability in co-authoring the letter to Congressman Yates. Both stated it was done as an attempt to embarrass [REDACTED] of Chicago, Illinois. This is related to a personal conflict between the subjects and [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] A previous interview with [REDACTED] confirmed this fact. Record checks on the subjects reveal that each one had a prior contact with the Chicago Police Department Youth Division. Both of these contacts were minor in nature and were station adjusted without formal processing or referral to the Juvenile Court System. Checks concerning [REDACTED] background

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

were negative concerning Chicago Division information and files, Chicago Police Department records, and the State of Illinois, Bureau of Identification Records. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] however, was previously listed as a runaway on [REDACTED] with the Chicago Police Department Youth Division, which was related to the above incident and may indeed have caused it. She returned home on [REDACTED]

b6

Both subjects and their parents were apprised of the seriousness of the situation and the possible consequences of their acts. All agreed they had acted irresponsible and immaturely and would not repeat any such actions in the future. Both subjects offered to write a letter of apology to Congressman Yates on their own initiative, and also offered to deliver in person an apology to the [REDACTED] residence.

In view of the nature of the above incident, that there was no viable attempt to carry out the threat, and that both subjects are juveniles who appear to be penitent, Chicago Division of the FBI will not be formerly presenting the above violation to the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois for prosecution.
